Handwritten musical notation on three staves. The notation consists of rhythmic patterns of eighth and sixteenth notes, often beamed together. Interspersed among the notes are the letters 'a' and 'h'. The first staff begins with a series of notes, followed by a 'h' and then a 'p'. The second staff starts with a 'h' and continues with notes. The third staff begins with a 'h' and continues with notes. The notation is dense and fills most of the staves.

Handwritten musical notation on a single page of manuscript paper. The notation consists of two staves, each with a treble clef. The notes are written in a cursive, handwritten style, with many slurs and ties. The ink is dark brown or black. The paper is aged and slightly yellowed. The handwriting is dense and fills most of the page.

A handwriting practice sheet for the letter 'b'. It features a grid of 10 rows and 5 columns. Each row contains five 'b' characters. The first row shows the letter in various styles and sizes, including a large 'b' with a long descender. The subsequent rows show the letter in different sizes and orientations, with some characters being slightly tilted or slanted. The letters are written in a dark ink on a light background.

A handwriting practice sheet for the letter 'h'. It features a grid of 20 boxes arranged in 4 rows and 5 columns. Each box contains a cursive lowercase 'h' for tracing. The first row shows five distinct 'h' characters. The second row shows five 'h' characters, with the last one being a lighter, faded version. The third row shows five 'h' characters, with the last one being a lighter, faded version. The fourth row shows five 'h' characters, with the last one being a lighter, faded version.
