From

W. C. Wordsworth, Esq., M.A.,
Secretary, Governing Body,
Presidency College, Calcutta.

To

Babu Dharendra Nath Mukherjee,
Shorthand Typist, Presidency College.

Dated Calcutta, the 5th September 1916.

Sir,

I have the honour to inform you that Mr. H. R. James, has made a formal report to the Governing Body and to the Principal of his sense of the loyalty with which he was supported by the staff throughout the disciplinary troubles of last session. The Governing Body in gladly placing this appreciation on record have instructed me to write to you to this effect and to convey to you their - - - appreciation for the assistance which you rendered to authority at that time.

I have etc.,
SD: W. C. Wordsworth,
Secretary, Governing Body,
Presidency College.

I joined my appointment here as Shorthand-typist on 17th March 1914 on Rs 75 per mensem, that is six years ago and am still drawing the same pay. Though I am Shorthand-typist here, I do all sorts of office work and have satisfied all by my work. I append herewith a list of gentlemen under whom I had the honour to serve and from all of whom I have got good certificates about my character and work. At present I have six certificates with me, copies of which I enclose for your kind perusal.

Babu Dhirendra Nath Mukhopadhyaya passed the Commercial Classes Final Examination in 1909. He appeared again this year to be examined in Shorthand, and passed at the rate of 120 words a minute. He is also a typist. I consider him fully qualified for the post. I have known him for about three years. He is a young man of good character, and comes of a highly respectable family.
