Sir

We the undersigned students of the Third year class beg respectfully to make the following representations with regard to the routine of our studies.

1. According to the present routine five lectures are delivered on Philosophy every week. Of these five the Professor of Philosophy devotes one to "Theism", the subject for the Honour course for the benefit of three or four students out of 33 or 34. This subject of Philosophy is new to many of us and we consider more lectures ~~in this subject~~ necessary.

2. We prefer reading the English History with an European professor. We have three lectures on the subject every week. We request you will be pleased to ask an European Professor to lecture on the subject.
