Notes and orders

1, Letter from the Director of Public Instruction, No. 7360, dated 31st August 1892.

Recommends that Dr Prafulla Chandra Roy, Temporary Assistant Professor in the Presidency College, on a salary of Rs 250, outside the classified list, may be confirmed in that appointment.

His Honour has noted that the unclassified list should cease and be absorbed in the Provincial Service, and that no new appointments should be made to it, temporary or otherwise, Dr. Prafulla Chandra Roy is a temporary officer in the unclassified list, and it is therefore for consideration whether he should be confirmed in the appointment, and consequently in the list. It has been decided that he should be appointed permanently to the subordinate service under the new scheme.

For orders.

D. N. N. - 8-9-92.

G. C. C. - 8-9-92

His Honour-

Mr. Tawney's proposal to confirm Dr. Prafulla Chandra Roy in his present appointment does not seem to be in accordance with the orders of 18th August.

W. M. - 11-9-92.

No. Mr Tawney has misunderstood the orders. He can be confirmed in the third grade, subordinate Educational Service at Rs 250 fixed pay, if that is desired; but it would be better to wait till the Provincial Service is constituted.

C. A. E. - 12-9-92.

INFORMING the Director as above.
