I beg to forward the results of my examinations of the Bath & Instruments from comparison with the Catalogue.
The new Instruments appear to be all right.
The old Instruments are broken and defective and as far as I am aware no correct Catalogue exists of them. With respect to the Microscope I observe that there are 3 recepts vacant for Object glasses and 2 recepts for eyepieces - There are also some minor fittings wanting but it is impossible to say what they have been - The Instrument is perfect for all practical purposes and is a very useful one - I have no recollection of receiving it before the Instrument was sent to the College and its present state - The key of the room in which the Instruments are kept was in the charge of Mr. Kerns before the move over of the and one of the benches - I cannot say what degree of delinquency may attend but I feel perfectly certain that the are not to blame - The Catalogue was not turned out by the hands state but it is not at all correct it was forwarded to the

I have not received certificate of a letter from Bryanatha the former one of the boys whom you are reporting.

I am now desirous to come back to the Hindoo College and enjoy the pleasure of prosecuting my study, which I think the only resource now left for me, but I am so unfortunate that my uncle who was a Commissioned Agent at Calcutta, has lost his situation, and it is now hardly possible for him to support me. I cannot therefore expect that he will be able any longer to pay my Schooling-fee.

However, Sir! my desire to be readmitted here and pursue my studies with a greater diligence, is increased to such a degree, that I have not either sleep by night nor rest by day, until I attain my object. Therefore I am unitedly your Petitioner craving your assistance to admit me here as a mission scholar. I will then be relieved from my pressured condition and ever after remain

Honored Sir

With due respect I take the liberty to lay before your Honor, the following lines, stating the present miserable condition I am suffering under.

My condition is the most wretched of any in the world. I live at my maternal uncle's at Ootyparrab. He supported me and paid for my education to the Ootyparrab School, where I obtained a junior scholarship last year, and was promoted to the Hindu College.

I was here placed under Mr. Salcliff and Mr. [unclear], both of whom loved me very tenderly. I passed my examination on the 1st of September last, but was under the influence of sickness on the second day of my health was destroyed, and I was spending the whole of the remaining four days

My fault was, I did not inform the [unclear] of my sickness for fear of not being allowed the privilege of the trial. The consequence was that I forfeited my scholarship and am now [unclear] from [unclear]

In reply to your letter N. 341 dated the 15th Instant I have the honor to report that Mr. Rose the Superintendent of the Conservancy Department was requested by me to repair the iron railing of the Hindoo College Compound.
I had some conversation with you about the repairs and you approved of my writing to Mr. Rose and said that the expense would be paid by the College.

The part of the railing which stood in immediate need of repair and to which I particularly alluded in my letter to Mr. Rose, was the part which constituted when the materials of the old wall to the South of the College were removed in 1845.

compared being enlarged two years ago. The opening made in the iron railing was not at first more than seven or eight feet wide; but the repairs being delayed for several weeks, eight or nine feet more gave way, occasioned partly by the ~~pressure~~ ^{pressing} of the Junior Pupils upon it.

The top and bottom bars, and with a few exceptions the vertical ones, remained; and the expense ought not, I think, to have exceeded at the utmost 100 Rupees.

Dec 12 Dec 1848 I have the honor to request that you will oblige me by laying before the Managing Committee the accompanying correspondence that has passed between Professor Subcliffe and myself.

I am sorry to be compelled to state for the information of the Committee in order that the speech of the present correspondence may be more clearly understood that from the day of my rejoining the Kendal College I professed to be in the same manner towards me (though we are comparatively strangers to each other) appears to be deficient in the ordinary courtesies which is exchanged between gentlemen of great rank in society but as there had been no previous intercourse between between us, either private or official, & no previous cause of misunderstanding was willing to believe that no personal offence was meant, though I could not help feeling that he indicated a desire to overlook my position as Principal ^{seems} and to employ his own official influence.

On my requesting him in polite terms to alter the form of an official Report, as it was addressed to me as Secretary to the Committee instead of to me as Principal of the College, it being against the Rules for any officer except the Principal to communicate directly with the Committee, he replied, that he adopted the usual course and had not time to make the alteration. Notwithstanding my objection to the form of his first letter, he subsequently sent me another for the Committee with precisely the same error of address.

I forwarded these letters to you with the necessary explanation and you continued to show to me personally with the remark that without an alteration

33 in the form of the address, you could not recuse them. On my sending Mr. Sutcliffe these letters for the required alteration he called on me personally and disputed the correctness of my view of the matter.

He added that it had always been his Custom to address the Secretary and not the Principal on similar occasions. In the course of a very unpleasant conversation he seemed determined to set my authority at defiance and said that he only gave me the report of the average attendance to oblige you, adding that it was no part of his duty, and that he should not consider himself bound to furnish such a report even if I directed him to do so - that in fact he would obey such order. He promised me to tell him that he would do so at his peril -

As it was my intention to bring the matter before the Committee only Mr. Sutcliffe in some way apologized or retracted. I thought I ought to request from him an official statement in writing as to whether he would or would not attend to my instructions should

I direct him to make an average of attendance such as he had furnished as a favor to the Secretary. He has obstinately evaded a direct answer with general expressions of a readiness to perform his duty on all occasions, and I think the head of a College has a right to insist upon a clear and direct answer from any officer under him, on that particular point upon which his authority has been questioned, especially when it has been so questioned in a tone of defiance. I consider his refusal to give a direct answer to the very plain question that was addressed to him, a considerable aggravation of his offence. I beg therefore that you will lay the whole correspondence before the Committee, and I fully trust to be so supported in this instance as to open the probability of such an incessant and indecorous collision for the future.

This is the first time, I think, and have now for many years had the honor of holding the office of President in the Educational Service) that I have had occasion to bring the conduct of any officer under me, to the notice of my own official superiors. The Committee will, I hope, on that account be the more ready to believe me when I say that it is with great reluctance and only under a deep sense of the imperative necessity of such a course that I now call upon them to signify their displeasure at the conduct of Professor Tuttle.

R.D.

As Mr. Sutcliffe has disclaimed all intention of personal offence and has recognized my authority as Principal in general terms and as since this correspondence has taken place, have seen a resolution of the Committee that is calculated I hope to prevent much misunderstanding in future, between the Principal and the other Officers of the Institution. I feel some hesitation in troubling the Committee with these Papers; but as Mr. Sutcliffe has stated to me in a personal interview that he would disobey my orders if I directed him to furnish an account of attendance of the classes, of the number of which he had the immediate charge and had pertinaciously insisted that I should have no objection to whether he had attended the resolution on the point

I still deem it necessary to refer the case to the Committee, who will decide whether or not an officer of the Establishment can defy his superior on some particular point, and yet shelter himself under general expressions of a readiness to perform his duty. As I have so distinctly stated my intention to Mr Sutcliffe to lay the matter before the Committee, I think it would not be advisable to let that officer, or any other imagine, that I withhold a report of misconduct from any mistrust of the Committee's readiness to support the authority of the Principal.

I do not, however, desire from the Committee so strong an expression of their displeasure at Mr Sutcliffe's conduct as I originally thought would be necessary, and should be quite satisfied with any reprimand, however moderate that the Committee might be pleased to pronounce, when on occasion with a simple

expression of their opinion, that I was entitled to a more direct answer to a simple question, than he has chosen to give --

Sir,

With reference to a conversation that passed between us this day on which you informed me that if I had ordered you to make an average of attendance of the College Clarks you should not have obeyed me, because you deemed it the duty of the Secretary or the Principal, I have to request that you will have the goodness to state whether if in any similar future case I should omit that duty to you for any other duty except that of instruction on subjects out of your line, you should hold yourself entitled to disobey my orders.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 8th December. In reply I beg to state that I have always most willingly cooperated with every Officer of the Institution in performing any duties which would contribute to the welfare of the Institution. Although such duties were not laid down on Rules of Colleges as appertaining to my Office, I feel me entrusted in the service in which I am engaged and shall at all times be most ready to perform any duties which the absence of the Principal or Professors or the emergencies of the service may require.

Sir

I had hoped that an answer to my letter of yesterday would have proved to be the last of the correspondence, but I fear that your letter just received will only delay the termination of a very disagreeable controversy.

I must readily accept of your explanation respecting what I considered personally offensive, nor do I dispute the proposition that there are duties connected with the office of Principality - which that officer cannot properly delegate to any subordinate unless when otherwise engaged by some emergency of the service renders it necessary, and the question still remains whether in the emergency the duty is to be Chief? Every individual, subordinate in the establishment, at liberty to erect himself into a judge in his own case as to to disobey the Principal whenever he thinks the Principal has sufficient time at his disposal to perform himself the duty that he delegates to another? — is such duty on each occasion to be suspended or postponed at the will of the subordinate, until reference can be made to the monthly Committee? This seems to me to be ^{be} contrary to the most obvious dictates of common sense, and if such principle were generally acted upon, it would annihilate all discipline and authority in the Institution. Suppose every Master in the College to act in this way towards his immediate superiors — what could possibly be the result, but continued controversy and confusion?

Of course admit that cases may arise in which a Principal may forget his own duty or may go beyond the bounds of his authority in comparing duties, uphold them, but it is not the office of his superior to judge him in the 47 first case, though there is an appeal against him in the latter; but such an appeal should be extremely well grounded to justify disobedience, and the display of a litigious spirit in making strong objections respecting very slight matters has never yet been encouraged in subordinate officers by the Council of Education or the Government.

The question of whether it should be the duty of the Principal or of the Professor to prepare an abstract of attendance of the College classes is in itself a comparatively trifling one (though I certainly think that the officer in immediate charge of the discipline of these classes ought to perform that duty) but if the Professor directly refuses to perform so slight a duty at the order of the Principal, until he the Professor can refer it to a Committee that meets only once a month the question assumes a very different and a much more important aspect.
Nothing is so common as to see a general proposition which would apply equally well to the most important and most important of the most important appeal is to be carried. I am compelled to say that though there is nothing further to complain of, as far as I am personally concerned, I still feel it necessary in support of the authority of my past to inform you that you have not distinctly explained to me whether you continue to consider my directing you to make an abstract of attendance, such an illegitimate extension of my authority that you should deem yourself justified in disobeying me on that point.

I consider that I have not only a clear right to ask this question, but that you would be guilty of a defiance of my authority in further evading a direct answer to it; and I should be seriously neglecting the interests of my past if I did not insist on your compliance. If you continue to refuse a direct reply to the question, so clearly and positively, as I am to drop the matter, and disappointed as I am that it has not been stopped before, I shall be compelled to refer the case to the committee.

The Committee of Management having had under their consideration the letter between you and Professor Sutcliffe on the relative duties of the Principal and Professor, think it enough or a review of the whole correspondence, that you should call Mr. Sutcliffe's attention to a resolution lately passed by them and noted in the margin and a note made to him that he is to observe the resolution. Captain J. L. Richardson, Principal of the Hindu College.

Sir,

I have the honor to forward my remarks on the various subjects connected with the branch school, respecting which your report is considered requisite.

1. The regularity of attendance will appear from the documents which have been forwarded with this report; but I should have noted the great absence is not so much as the previous year. The numerous pupils are retained on the regular system, by order of the Government, and in the case of free boys a month or more is allowed to see if they intend returning to the school.

2. The general character of the boys is on a par with that of similar schools. The general conduct very good.
There have been a few instances of misbehavior, but none of a serious nature, and all have been corrected. The honour of the boys has been maintained, and they have had the advantage of being educated from a house of distinction, on the part of the Government, in consequence of the agitated state of mind in which they were kept during the greater part of the last academic year. In the present department, the class of students is of a high order. The following table shows the results of the

which were remarkably quiet and well disciplined.

3rd. The system of instruction is founded upon one simple principle, the monthly examination of the classes in the Junior Department by the Head Master: - future good classes will depend upon the proper training of the younger lads, which appears to have been neglected under the former management; - a register of attainments in every subject is kept by the Head Master and thus the qualifications of every boy are known. When the expectation of being constantly examined by the Head Master has been inculcated, it produces a most salutary effect in the Junior Department: whatever confidence a Head Master may have in his subordinate teachers, he is almost an automaton & a mere peripatetic supervisor. - There is not a boy but can attain the standard mentioned in the Scheme of Study and the New Rules, if ~~the~~^{he} be young enough when admitted and he properly attended to, after adding the incessant inspection of the classes is the only method to check the accumulation of big ignorant boys - the brags of the school - who, I may remark as a curious fact, are seldom stupid, though very ignorant; - a fact which conveys that the fault has been, not so much that of the teacher, - how so much, that of the scholar, - as that of the Head Master. -

Having mentioned the principle upon which the system is founded, I would make a few remarks on the mode of instruction; - and first, with regard to that of the Junior Classes; - the system of teaching English in most lower ^{elementary} schools has been adopted from the Pathe School, - a few lads at a time, the best pupils particularly, and not the whole class simultaneously.

this has been vigilantly rectified. The Elliptical Method of Teaching has been pursued in hearing a class; as this is a novelty, has been decidedly successful, and is claimed by me as a novel application of a mode of instruction; I should remark upon the method and its utility: the Elliptical plan of teaching is described in "Widdowson's Infant System," page 316, the perusal of which will furnish details; - "words are omitted in a narrative repeated by the teacher, for the purpose of being supplied by the children; - as a plan for teaching, it has been employed in numerous Modern works on the arts of Grammar and English Composition, in "S. Ousey's English Grammar in Chambers' Educational Course,"
 "Edwards on English Composition," Allen and Cornwells' English Grammar, and similar works; as a plan for Teaching I have not as yet ~~experienced~~ experienced its successful results; but as a plan for hearing a class, it is invaluable; in a few minutes, it attains a most momentous object, it discovers an important fact ~~for~~ to the teacher, for it shows what boys have never or only partially read their lessons at home; - More than the moiety of every class in every large school in India, I am convinced, never even look at their English lessons prior to their attendance upon the Master;
 - the Elliptical plan immediately points out the idle boys for reproof, and increases of constant evidence for reprobation; for the detection of idleness, it is a powerful instrument at the command of the Head Master in his monthly examination of the Junior Classes: the boys having been examined to ascertain the idle ones, the viva voce translation and explanation proceed; - word by word, first; - then phrase by phrase; - then sentence by sentence upon the plan recommended by Dr. Arnold in his review on the King by School in the Journal of Education, in which he has inserted some excellent remarks upon "translations": - the explanation of the lesson is conducted upon the Wood's Seasonal School system.

The old routine has been abolished;

W. Van Hook

- One year for Easy Primer
- one year for No. 1 English Spelling
- One year for first half of No. 1. Prose Reader
- one year for second half of ditto.
- one year for first half of No. 2 Prose Reader
- one year for second half of ditto.
- one year for first half of No. 3 Prose Reader
- one year for second half of ditto.

8 years! - 8 years of the early period of a boy's life; - energies active; - attention on the alert; - mind naturally acute; - all, all, wasted; - the intellect left fallow and was uncultivated, because for want the boy could not read a certain prose book with a semi-educated, monotonous inflection; - would grow up apace, and boys, for their poverty, and not for their merit, were allowed to remain in the school only for the purpose of commutative philanthropy; - most of these children, four hundred or more, out of the five hundred became useless to men, and when sent into the world were not fit for any fine business, or worth as common workmen. Many of them were satisfied by their very education; - in those dark eight years, unprofitable and lost were ^{wasted} the ~~eight~~ ^{best} years of a boy's life.

enough, was not taught arithmetic, a little cyphering was known and but a little; he was scarcely taught to express things, badly and without shape; he was, it is true, taught the English language, not the English language of a D. D. in Edgeworth or a Goldsmith, not the colloquial English language, but the jargon of a China Bazaar Shop-keeper Shopman; - and how was the English language taught? - without vocabulary, and without Dictionary, with a pronunciation incorrect and an inflection discordant; even by many of the Masters was pronounced
 "I - You"; - Metaphors was embellished in the English words were not recognisable: - the letter "R" at the end of a syllable was invariably pronounced as a Bangali "Rha" and that with an extra whining
 - all this has been attempted to be rectified: - Opposites I have had, and may have; but time which wastes huge stones with little water - drops will in doubt remove present evils.

Having stated thus much respecting the Junior Department little can be expected of the said in favour of the Senior classes who were formerly trained on the system above described: - the fourth class contains some youths who are meritorious smart and intelligent but who pronounce inaccurately and read and write incorrectly - the 5th class is and will be from year to year for some time the worst in the school: - time alone can improve these classes and make them more at a condition in which they may well be deserving of attention. The drawing of a few for the annual examination will never be decided by - The education of the whole class will always be considered by me as a matter of paramount importance.

4th The school has been successful as far as practical ends are concerned, both with regard to the practical habits of the scholars and the intellectual improvement of the pupils.

5th The boys admitted during the past academical year were young men of course who had already some elementary knowledge, and whose consequence produced no apparent effect on the habits or requirements of the old scholars.

6th The conduct of the school has been satisfactory with the exception of the Punishment which has been during the year the ignorance the most complete and unreluctant for the teachers. Upon the morality of the teachers, I shall not presume to comment, as the late reports by the Committee of Examiners furnish the necessary particulars.

Your very Obedient & Humble Servant

Wm. Thwaites

Master

Dear Mr. Webb I received your letter and was very glad to hear from you. I am well and hope this finds you the same. I have been very busy lately but I have managed to find time to write you. I have been thinking much of late about the future of the country and the people. I have been reading much of the history of the country and the people and I have been thinking much of the future of the country and the people. I have been thinking much of the future of the country and the people. I have been thinking much of the future of the country and the people.

Note by the Principal

Then it will be necessary to display the two boys as an example to other fellow students for it will be impossible for the master to preserve their authority if the conduct is permitted. At the same time the master did wrong in striking the boy but has already been reprimanded for it.

My dear Sir,

I beg to report that Duguid Chatterjee & Gopal both read the Manuscript of the Book which Department have been absent for the last two months without leave. I have been informed that it is their intention to leave college but as it is not usual for two students to notify their withdrawal I would suggest that their absence be reported to the Committee in order that their names may be struck off the rolls.

Another person named Grace a student of the Branch School was obliged to be absent from his duties for some time on account of his father's death. His father was taken so suddenly ill that he had no time to apply for leave but remained immediately in company with his wife & our ladies. Consequently we were inconvenienced & the duties of our school we were obliged to stop at some point. I turned to Mrs. Chapman for assistance in the 11th Book & understood he would pay for the most & current month of Board & school then. Charlotte she refused to accept of it at the same time informing that he had been struck off the rolls on the 1st of December last.

Under these circumstances I request the issue of the Committee to admit the person

Baron Bunsen's Letter

St. Andrew's College

Sir In reply to your letter of the 19th instant you beg to observe that the only objection which we can produce, is the memorandum signed by Mr J. Ross, which you must have noticed on the pages of the Bill. The work was accented to his order and the Bill presented to him in due course; - after considerable delay it was returned with the note referred to, and we were informed that it would be laid in presentation to you.

We again forwarded the Bill, trusting the above will be deemed sufficient.

Yours faithfully

loss of a Scholarship is not necessarily in every case the fault of the holder. Indisposition and other domestic circumstances, which are here specially incident to a Hindu family, would in some instances best assuredly account for such a any fault whatever of theirs. have thus at the most embarrassing period of their study, their aspirations repressed and their hopes blasted by being obliged to leave the College before finishing their education.

What your petitioners presume that they may be permitted to state their own feeling that the proposed sale of unferment might operate in many of them as a powerful check to exertion for reform they would argue would be the advantage of gaining a scholarship when students or other causes might at once deprive them of their scholarships and of their privilege to study in the hottest of institutions.

That your petitioners therefore most humbly pray that, that generosity &

Sir

In answer to your letter of the 30th ultimo which I laid before the Commissioners for the Improvement of the Town of Calcutta, I was instructed by them to say that some time has elapsed since they made their Contract for watering the Roads this season, and as the Aqueduct does not extend to the places you wished to be watered, the expense of doing it would be more than they are prepared to defray, they are therefore sorry that they are not able to accede to your request.

States ^{that} the Contract for watering the Streets has been for some time completed this season and as the aqueduct does not extend to the places where it was the wish of the Committee to water the expense would be more than what the Commission were prepared to defray.

I incline to think that the single candidate should be examined, if he is not out of place in offering himself. It should be that he be examined to know that the medal will not be given to him the list of books which he is to be having, and must be prepared to an examination. He should appear to the Council of the University to receive the Medal. If any student has been working very hard with a view to the medal it would be unjust to leave out to let him try to gain it, because others have not done the same, or knowing his superiority decline to contest it with him. I think that he may be called upon at once to give us the list of books he proposes to have read (if that is the form in which the examination is to be given, as is probably) I am informed that the Council have been in consideration whether being allowed to be examined Memorandum I will see that I get time to ascertain the opinions of the other members.

With reference to rule 3 of the regulations promulgated in July 1846 for carrying into effect the Governor General's resolution of October 1846, I am directed by the Council of Education to inform you that the words in the 4th year of a Senior Scholarship have been substituted for the expression in the last year of a Senior Scholarship and to request that you will be so good as to make the same known to all those in the Hindu College whom it concerns.

The rule will thus far, more or less follow

There shall be two classes of pupils the first shall comprise such as are in the first year of a Senior Scholarship or who though not actually in the fourth year would be so if they

there had been a vacant scholarship at the time when they first became eligible for one or have been engaged for ten years in the study of English at a private institution, and who

With reference to the letter of Baloo Peary Choudhury to the Committee of Management of the Hindu College. May be stated that whenever a Master is absent his Section is placed under the immediate charge of a Monitor, while the general Superintendence rests with the Master of the Class as usual.

In the present instance the Pandit instructed the Class for an hour and a half daily in the Toranulien - at other times a Monitor was in charge. Baloo Peary Choudhury the Master of the Class occasionally setting the English lessons. I should also state that the boys being somewhat noisy Baloo Peary Choudhury sent away the Monitor thinking that there would be left with out one but as soon as the circumstance was brought to my notice I placed another Monitor in charge.

I have always found that Monitors are of very little assistance, and I would beg to suggest that as was formerly the case a Superintending Teacher should be engaged to fill the place of absent Teachers. His services would also be useful in the 1st Class. This Class which is constantly increasing admitting recruits of several nations and when it is large one Master cannot sufficiently instruct.

Sir,

With reference to the accompanying letter from Mr. Sturgeson I beg to state that I charge Mr. Sturgeson with incapacity to receive a proper education on his class on the following grounds.

1st The equal failures of his class at successive final examinations.

2nd The frequent petty irregularities in his class which though not singly would reflect on the whole upon an absence of discipline.

3rd The repeated complaints made by the Teachers that the boys promoted from his class are on not only ill grounded but come up with habits of indolence and inattention.

Mr. Sturgeson explains that he is not untried with sufficient power to maintain proper discipline, but as I have remarked to him, he is upon an equal footing in this respect with the other Teachers of the Institution.

Sir,
The honor to forward letter from

I have not been long enough similar reports on previous

Feb 23rd 1859

Sir,
In reply to the assertion made by Mr. Jones in the last part of his letter to your address dated the 11th Instant, allow me to make the following observations in my defence, and to beg that you will submit the same to the Committee of Management.

1st That the charge of incapacity on my part of exercising a proper control over my Class, is similar to that attempted to be proved by him and Mr. Kerr in the Examination Report for 1845-46, and I take this opportunity of answering both.

2nd That I wrote to Mr. Kerr, who communicated the subject of Mr. Jones' remarks to me, to be favored with any instructions or suggestions which he might think proper to give on the subject of discipline. In his reply he returned my letter to be submitted through the Head Master. In doing so Mr. Jones told me to withdraw my letter, and I did so.

3rd That the incapacity which is apparent to Mr. Jones, is traceable to an apparent laxity of discipline in the College.

4th That the details of discipline, according to Rule 51, are the peculiar care of Mr. Jones the Head Master, to whom the Committee of Management have entrusted the exclusive charge of them. So that if he has any reason to complain, he has the remedy in his own hands.

5th That many instances of gross misconduct on the part of students have occurred, to my colleague as well as that of other subordinate Masters, but have not been dealt with by Mr. Jones when referred to him. It is possible that the circumstances may arise to mention the heads of the 1st That the authorized modes of punishment under Rule 93 are six of which four can be inflicted by the Principal alone and two by the Head Master. The mode usually adopted by the subordinate Masters in the special case of petty offences is to make the offender stand up on the bench. but even this I was once forbidden by Mr Jones to use; for, as he said, if I looked into the Regulations, I should find no such kind of punishment laid down.

2nd That the failures in the examinations to which Mr Jones alludes have been already accounted for by me, and the papers are in the possession of the Committee of Management. They are attributable to other causes than to incapacity of exercising control but chiefly, as I have of late discovered, to indiscriminate promotions of students made without reference to their merits.

3rd That the incapacity noticed by Mr Jones is highly exaggerated. It does not exist in any degree greater in my class than in any other and that which actually exists is owing to the cause stated in my 3rd observation. The students appear to have been led into the belief that our system of discipline is a system of lenity counterfeiting severity; and that so long as they do nothing which does not come immediately to the notice of the Principal or the Committee of Management, those who are inclined may set the Regulations at defiance.

4th That this Report of Mr Jones on my incapacity does not amalgamate with his report on a case of assault intended to be perpetrated by a student of my class during my absence on public duty, and in the streets after school hours, and had Mr Jones given the student a timely admonition, it might have been prevented.

Gi

Sir
 I have the honor to report that you have all received the accompanying letter from Mr. Ritchie to my address to the consideration of the Committee.
 I am, Sir, very respectfully, Yours, &c.

something must be done to put a stop to absences without leave and keep up regularity of attendance

I propose in a few days to hold a consultation with the Professors and masters with a view to draw up and submit to the Committee a revised system of penmanship.

In the mean time I recommended Mr. Rutcliffe's proposals to be adopted in the present case.

with the exception of the boy no. 5 — Mr. Benares, Birlachan Holter as I mention. I have recollections of his having attended Lama from near. But I do not know whether he was not attending from near as I would recommendation for deduction of one month's scholarship pay on his account. I was truly at present recommending him as a person I know that he is in very bad health indeed & perhaps his absence has been entirely occasioned by illness, though he is now in not being given due notice of it.

Yours truly
Sir

From H. H. H. B. A.

To Capt. Richardson

Principal H. College

Dear Sir,
I beg to forward a list of those students whose attendance during the past month has been irregular.

Wed 7 March 1899 R. H.	1. Subender Nath Thakoor — 4 days abs. without leave 2. Lomus Chunder Nath — 4 — — — — 3. Sata Nath Ghose — 4 days abs. without leave
	4. Bhujyoti Chunder Thakoor — 4 days — — — —
	5. Lalla Chunder Banerjee — 10 — — — — 6. Gopal Chunder Gupta — 4 — — — — 7. Ramanath Laha — 10 — — — — 8. Manna Boman Roy Chowdhury — 4 — — — —

The student (1) is generally very regular in his attendance and a caution as to the future would be doubtless have the desired effect. The student (2) has not yet joined the College having absented himself since the election festival holidays. From previous similar conduct I recommend that he be fined 5 Rs. or his name struck off in default of payment. The students (3) (4) (5) are scholarship holders. I propose that half a month's pay be deducted from their scholarships. The student (6) I recommend to be expelled. He is holding a B.A. scholarship and I have already reported him to you for similar irregularities. The student (7) applied

151 for leave of absence for 7 days which was granted - He did not however join the College for 10 days afterwards I presume that his scholarship pay for last month be withheld - Done

It was that interference and suggested Minutes of the Board, which management recommending the admission of Brown Church School, as a free school to be in the Union School, would show up, for the purpose of qualifying himself to pass the examination for admission to the National School.

Resolved: in the present circumstances of the case to be granted as a special indulgence which is not the custom in the light of a precedent for future applications for similar kind.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a manuscript or letter. The text is written on aged, yellowed paper and is oriented vertically. The script is dense and difficult to decipher, but appears to be a form of early modern or medieval handwriting. The text is written in dark ink and is arranged in several lines, with some words appearing to be written in a larger, bolder script than others. The overall appearance is that of a historical document.

Sir,

Please to have frequent visits to your school as well as to the Hindu College. I have a set of books for the school and an adequate allowance for the books.

I believe that last year some order was put for the books and the books were sent; but as the school room is very small for the great number of scholars reading, I have the books of the management might be disposed to grant an extension of the indulgence.

Sir,

I have the honor to bring kind regards to your notice the great inconvenience 1849 we are labouring under for want of proper accommodations in this season of the year.
I need scarcely state that that attention and labour which are necessary on the part of masters and pupils for the proper communication and reception of instruction, can hardly be bestowed in this season, owing to the excessive heat of the sun.
The particular premises is so situated that the rays of the sun beat on both morning and evening and both the masters and pupils with much annoyance. They therefore, the Committee would, to secure a faithful performance of duty, be pleased to order for Pantkiss & Pantkiss during the hot weather. The expenses would not, I am confident, be very great.

I beg to assure you that the undersigned is aware of the importance of the matter and is doing his best to secure the best possible result.

We beg to prefer a request, with which we trust on the grounds here instated, you will not refuse compliance.

Last year we succeeded in obtaining the required number of marks for holding Junior Scholarships; but unfortunately in consequence of there being no vacancies we only held the rank of Junior Scholars.

This year we have also succeeded in obtaining the assigned number of marks for retaining Junior Scholarships of one year's standing.

Both these instances of success will we trust speak favourably for our assiduity and attention to our studies, and we now submit the favor of being ranked with Junior Scholars of two years' standing, so that we may be entitled to compete for Junior Scholarships in the ensuing year in accordance with the rules prescribed by the Council of Education.

I beg to acknowledge the receipt of the Extract from of the Comtee is conveyed to me for absents myself without notice from the distribution of the Prize at the Town Hall, and in explanation of my conduct to state that on the Labouring under this, as it seems, misapprehension I attended the Comtee that I meant no disrespect to the Council of Education, and that had I known that it was my duty to attend I would have done so cheerfully, as there was nothing to hinder me.

Hoping that this explanation will induce the

Captain D. L. Richardson
Principal, Hindu College

Sir

We beg leave most respectfully to submit the favour of your representing to the Committee of Management of the Hindu College, the necessity of opening the College from 6 to 10 A.M. instead of from 10 1/2 A.M. to 4 1/2 P.M., during the ensuing hot months of April, May, and June.

In submitting the indulgence, we beg the favour of your attention to the following considerations for the changes.

1. The present practice of attending the College in the day is injurious to our health. We are young persons and are combined with the fact that we are required to make in the hottest part of the day.

cannot fail to have an injurious effect on our constitutions.

Further, the present practice is unfavorable to mental improvement. The languor and weariness, produced by the extreme heat during the school hours, prevent us from making any great exertion and render us incapable of devoting that degree of attention to our pursuits which they require. In fact they engender in us a habit of inattention & which is highly detrimental to our progress.

These evils would be in a great measure removed by opening the College early in the morning. In the first place, we should be less exposed to the sun, viz. only when returning home, and that not in the hottest part of the day. Secondly, we should be

259 be able to devote a further attention to our studies. And lastly, the professors and masters would be less exhausted and of course proportionally more able to do justice both to us and to themselves.

3. The practice of opening the college in the morning would moreover be attended with no inconvenience, either to the students, or to the families to which they belong.

The students (it is true) will be obliged to take their principal meals an hour or two later than they do usually.
This, however, cannot be injurious to them. It is usual with the natives when they are obliged to take their principal meal late in the day. This practice the students may follow with advantage.

...offending their religion and
...without incurring any additional expense, as they are now in the habit of taking tiffin at one o'clock.

It may not be superfluous to add, that the students while attending the small Patshalas in each neighbourhood undergo the same discipline, respecting their hours of attendance and take tiffin before their principal meal.

After this example, it is evident, that the practice is not inconsistent with the economy of native families.

It appears that in the absence of the proper guardians, there are generally some others -- who take care of the younger boys. These, however, may be charge of them during the morning hours of study.

Also

260
Also the elder heads of the families may exercise their authority over the younger ones.

4

The practice is not opposed to the opinion of the active Community. The influential members of this town (and among them some of the members of the Committee of Management) have been pleased to favor the Western Charitable Institution and the Scots Free College with the morning school.

Further, the Council of Education have granted the indulgence to the Calcutta Madras and the English College.

The English College also had been favored with the indulgence for two years, during which time they had to state, but not the same indulgence, but not

You wrote to me the other for the present quarter to the thought of disposing of the greater part of my own library for the convenience of the cash in which I stand in some need and I have a list of the Museum who seem to think the managing committee would have no objection to select a quantity of the books. I have the list to you, begging you to lay it before the committee. The books are in excellent order and in most cases extremely well bound by European binders.

There are complete sets of the Edinburgh and the Quarterly recommend to be taken for The first 22 ^{volumes} of the Westminster very acceptable and need not be kept up. They are highly interesting as far as they go and contain groups of great value.

I have the honor to report for the information of the Committee that Gungadhar Banerjee and Gungadhar Sen nominated free students, the first by Babu Dehender Nath Tagore and the second by Babu Radamachandra Banerjee, are found on examination to be inadmissible if the rules are truly rigidly adhered to. I examined Gungadhar Banerjee in the 5th number Reading.
His reading is not what it ought to be in a boy of his age (about 16) and Gungadhar Sen a boy nearly 12 years of age. I examined in the 5th No. 3. He also reads ill for a boy of his age. Both boys are ill grounded in arithmetic. Babu Radamachandra Banerjee reports that Gungadhar Banerjee is tolerably qualified by his acquirements in Bengali but that speaking English he is rather deficient Under these circumstances I think it right to submit their case to the consideration of the Committee who may be disposed perhaps to admit them as special indulgences though I could not myself admit them on the authority of the Rules into the Hindu college, on the free list, my a month and half for the recovery of his health.

I beg to annex therefore, for your perusal, the Principal, Lincoln College

I beg to bring before you a matter which has prevailed in the Coll. for some years but which I consider so pernicious in its influence that I trust you will unite with me in providing a remedy as speedily as possible. The practice to which I allude is that of allowing school holders (who are about to quit the Coll.) to resign their school a day or two previous to the annual examination. At the last general examination five of the best students in the school displayed themselves of this practice as previous notice being given. I have accidentally heard that it is likely to occur this year and with the view of checking this I hope some arrangement will be made. It appears to me most unjust not only to the Professors but to other qualified students to postpone any exam. course in future. After a careful consideration of 12 months in the subject of examination to find the labour thrown away is not very encouraging to a Professor to be retaining his school till the period of exam. - He prevents several students from enjoying the fruits of their labours and he may also miss the time any manner agreeable to himself provided he does not violate the Coll. Rules, without any detriment to his ulterior prospects.

There are other reasons & reasons and justice for checking this course that I trust you will join me in recommending that the usual certificate from the College ^{shall} be refused to those who adopt this practice till the final examⁿ determines the certificate, be refused - and allow no scholarship holder to reside within 6 months of the examⁿ unless under circumstances it may be deemed excusatory. To show the mischievous tendency of this system I will state the case of one student who is intending to resign in the usual way Thomas Boston Secretary of the Coll was at the head of the list in last examⁿ - his name is inserted in the Councils list - he can gain no ad-ditional emoluments by passing another examⁿ - he has determined therefore to resign his seat as long as possible and afterwards to claim without examⁿ a certificate that he has been studious and diligent during the past 12 months and you will bring this to the notice of the committee at the earliest opportunity. Yours the honor able
J. H. H. H.

Note by Mr Principal

In forwarding the communication from Professor Litchiffe I beg to express my concurrence in his views as to recommending the subject (which is one of much importance) to Extract of a letter dated 10th January from the Principal of the Benares College, Dr. Dallantyne -

"As we shall draw for Mahomed's scholarship (if the Council have no objection) for the year 1849, in our monthly pay bills, as if he were still a student of the Benares College, and remit the money monthly to the Secretary of the Hindu College, to be handed to Mahomed - you will have no further trouble about him, unless you see reason to object to this proposed arrangement. -

I propose, at the same time that he be informed that at the end of 1849 his name is to be removed from the books of the Benares College; and that his holding a Scholarship - will depend upon his being able to give an account of his studies to the Hindu College."

Dallantyne

Sir,
In conjunction with Mr Jones, the Head Master I have again examined the two candidates for admission - Jeyanthin Bernagar and fresh Chander Sen, and as far as I am concerned I have no objection to admit them.
Upon a rigid adherence to the rules they would hardly be admitted; but though the boys are a little backward in their education from not having been properly trained or from their own neglect they do not seem to be naturally deficient.
They both read with a pretty good accent and if they would pledge themselves to study hard we might expect that they would soon recover the ground.
Please to let me hear what the Committee will do.
