

RAJSHAHI COLLEGE,
RAJSHAHI.

The 10th Nov. 1930.

Dear Sir Jehangir,

I hope you have settled down comfortably in your new position as I have in mine. There is a very nice Bungalow for the Principal here, only the absence of Electric lights makes one feel that one is far removed from civilisation.

When my transfer to Rajshahi was decided upon, the Hon'ble Minister agreed to give me a seat on the Senate at an early opportunity and facilities for using the Presidency College Library.

Stapleton has written to me to say you hold two seats on the Senate — one personal and the other Ex-Officio and if the former falls vacant he will speak to the Vice-Chancellor for my nomination. If you find that the responsibilities of two Fellowships ^{sitting} heavy on your shoulders, you might like to lighten them by shedding one.

Also I shall be obliged if you will permit me to use your Science Library and borrow books and periodicals when I get a chance of coming to Calcutta.

Hoping to be excused for the trouble,

I remain
Yours sincerely
P. M. Sen.
