The 25th February 1916

Babu Dharendra Nath Mukherji came to me as Shorthand-typist in March 1914. He had good recommendations and I have found them fully justified. He has, in my opinion, improved markedly in the two years he has worked for me and I find him now a very competent assistant. His work is accurate & very neat. I have recently tried his power of taking shorthand notes of a Governing Body meeting and the experiment was quite successful. He is willing and obliging and I have always found him ready to make special effort when called upon. On the strength of what he has done for me in the Presidency College for the last two years I am able to recommend him for better pay and more responsible employment, should the opportunity of such offer.
